

Special power of attorney allows you to assign a third party to make decisions on your behalf in certain prescribed and limited issues.

Special Power of Attorney

I, the undersigned (Ali Mohammed Abdul-Rahman) of Iraqi nationality and hold the unified identity (00771853) issued in (Baghdad) on (7-10-2018), in accordance with this document (or hereby) do authorize (Mr. Adil Qasim Hussein) from (Baghdad) the holder of the unified identity (007855122) issued in (Baghdad) on (1-11-2016) to act on my behalf in accordance with this power of attorney in borrowing and obtaining credit facilities in my name from Al-Rafidain Bank in Iraq, and in pledging as security my moveable and immoveable property with the competent departments of Land Registration. The agent shall have the right of disposal over the loan and/or the credit facilities and this is in accordance with the regulations provided for in the contraction of a loan and/or the contraction of credit facilities, and over the opening of bank accounts, withdrawal and deposit and the withdrawal of my deposits and funds from any bank whatsoever. I also authorize him without restriction to sign all papers, claims and business transactions relating to the affairs detailed above with all competent authorities and with my joint and mutual obligation for all liabilities which might ensue as a result of my agent using this power of attorney.
